

Cabinetmaker | Joiner

Summed up, our client is a well established, traditional Cabinetmaking/Joinery who take pride in their workmanship. This position is a pivotal role within this company and your experience will be invaluable in ensuring the workshop continues to produce quality products.

As the successful applicant you will possess the following:

- Trade Qualification in Cabinetmaking or Joinery
- A strong focus on producing 'high end' quality product
- Experienced in reading and interpreting drawings
- A strong desire to work in a team environment
- Experience working with a variety of solid timbers and installations

You will be a Cabinet Maker who will come to work each and every day and treat this business as if it were your own. With a focus on quality workmanship and free flowing communications designed to get the most out of the team, our client offers an energetic and enthusiastic environment where team spirit is the key.

Applicants for this position should have NZ residency or a valid NZ work visa.