Security Alarm Systems Installation Technician

The work involves mainly the:-
- Installation and maintenance of intruder alarms, access control systems and CCTV systems.

Previous experience in the Security Industry is preferred, however if you have a technical and/or installation background would be considered as appropriate training will be provided to the successful candidate.

- Candidates must have a spotless criminal background and a current drivers license.
- Extensive background checks will be carried out on those who are short-listed.

The successful candidate will:-
- Need to be fit and energetic;
- Be able to work totally unsupervised at times;
- Be able to deal one-on-one with clients;
- Have good customer skills;
- Be well organized
- Maintain a good personal appearance and be extremely neat and tidy in their work.

If you think this is the job for you apply without delay.

Email your details to anne.smith@jobsmith.co.nz or phone JOBsmith on 04 499 5119