

Stainless and Alloy Fabricator

- Huge variety

Either a qualified Tradesmen or really experienced journeymen.

Must be able to read interpret and produce quality from drawings or verbal instructions good team environment and advancement potential.

To be successful in this role you will be:-

- A Tradesman or an experienced journeyman;
- TIG and MIG welding experience preferable;
- Experience with Stainless Steel, Aluminium and Galvanized plate;
- Manufacture, repair and alteration exp pref;
- Able to read plans and drawings or interpret verbal instructions;
- Good attention to detail, completing work within timeframes;
- Must be punctual, motivated and a team player;
- Physically fit and takes pride in their work
- Good communication skills
- A strong commitment to customer service and H&S;
- A full drivers license

On offer is a competitive hourly rate, great team environment and spacious workshop conditions.

If you can tick all or most of the above and seeking a permanent position, then contact us by forwarding your cv immediately to anne.smith@jobsmith.co.nz